Description

This bright and well-maintained one-bedroom apartment is arranged to provide practical and well-balanced living space. The property features a separate, modern kitchen that has been recently upgraded and offers ample room for dining. A useful storage cupboard is located off the entrance hallway, which leads through to the main living areas. The reception room benefits from a window opening into the kitchen, enhancing the sense of space and light. Hardwood flooring runs throughout both the living room and bedroom, each enjoying good natural daylight.

There is no immediate work needed, making it a straightforward purchase for buyers seeking a ready-to-occupy home.

The sale is offered with no onward chain and would suit first-time buyers or those looking for a convenient London base.

Located on Comeragh Road, the property enjoys a quiet yet central location. West Kensington Underground (District Line) is just a short walk away, offering quick links to central London. A wide array of shops, cafés, and restaurants are nearby, with Kensington High Street and Earl's Court also within easy reach. Green spaces and local parks add to the area's appeal.

West Kensington is also home to the prestigious HSBC Queen's Championships, now elevated to combined ATP 500 and WTA 500 status. This marks the exciting return of elite women's tennis to the area after more than 50 years, underscoring the neighbourhood's growing prominence.
